

Go fish

The Black Lion in W6 has just launched its fantastic Friday Fish Specials. With a mouth-watering array of four different fish, a choice of sesame seed or traditional beer batter, and chips or salad, the cool riverside eatery has scaled new heights in quality, good value cuisine. From £8 for a small portion and £10.50 for generous and a great selection of local ales and wines, this is sure to enhance that Friday feeling.

BLACK LION MANAGING JUST NICELY

A HAMMERSMITH pub is in the running to be named one of the best in the UK.

The Black Lion has been selected as the Best Managed Pub in London in The Great British Pub Awards 2009, announced by the Morning Advertiser.

It now goes through to an awards ceremony on September 9, when the national category champions and regional winners will be revealed, and one pub announced as the supreme winner for the UK.

The pub in Black Lion Lane has plenty of events happening, including a new bingo night every Monday from 7.30pm and the regular psychic night on August 19 from 7pm.

The next live music on Sundays is vocalist Darren James on August 16, James Henry on the 23rd and Nikki Ashton on the 30th.
